

There are so many things on radio and TV that are unhealthy for families and little ones. We appreciate KLOVE so much for their encouraging programing. A community is well served when uplifting programming is on the air, instead of degrading shock-radio that will not help our children -or even adults become responsible citizens.